

THE BODY A1

1. Write the names of the body parts.

head ✓neck shoulder stomach hand leg chest foot

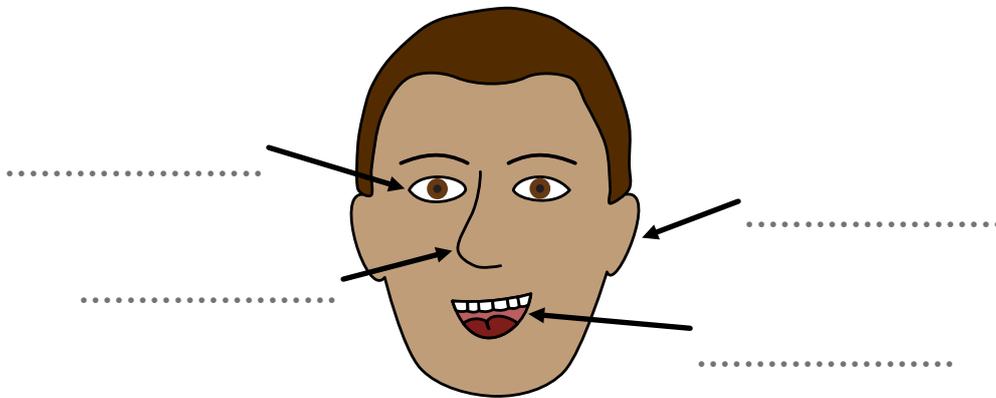

toes arm back fingers

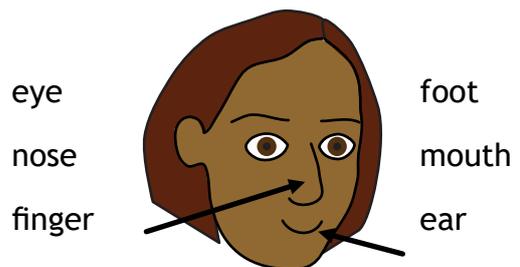

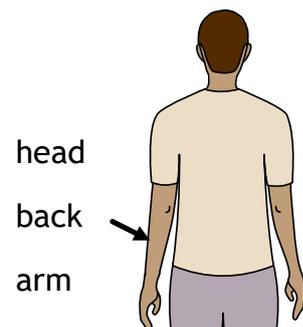

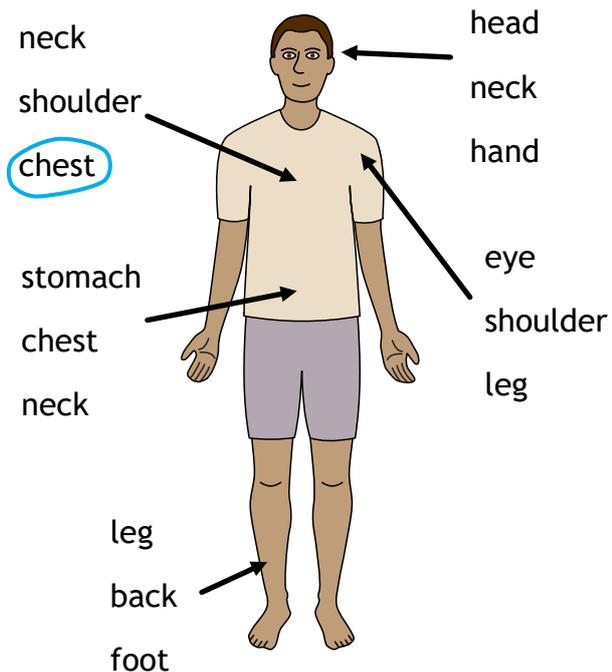

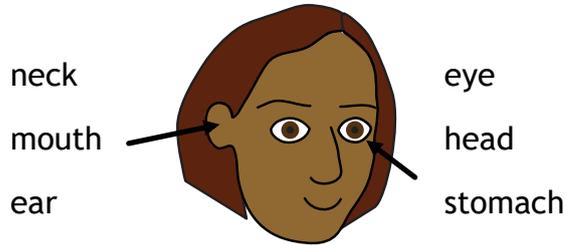

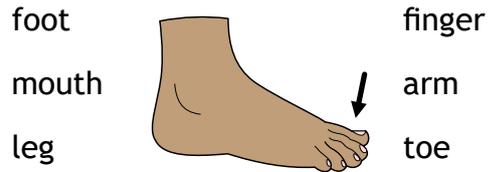

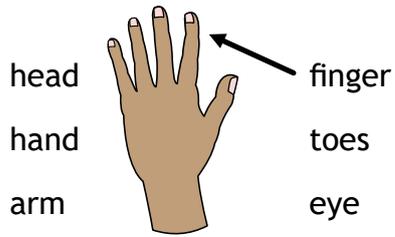

Parts of the face.

eye ear nose mouth

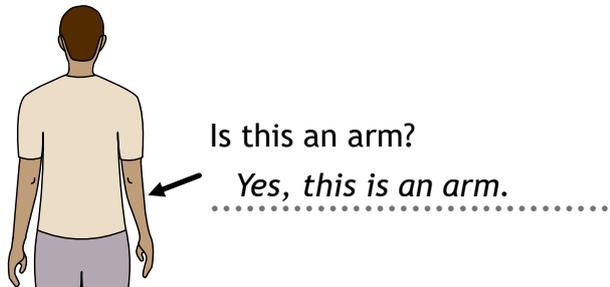

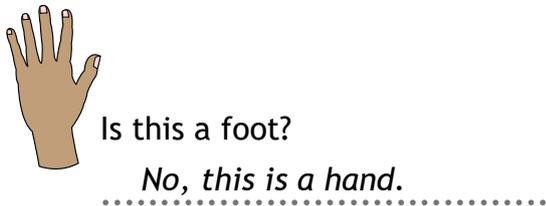

2. Select the correct names for the body parts.

3. Answer the questions.

Is this a shoulder?
.....

Is this a chest?
.....

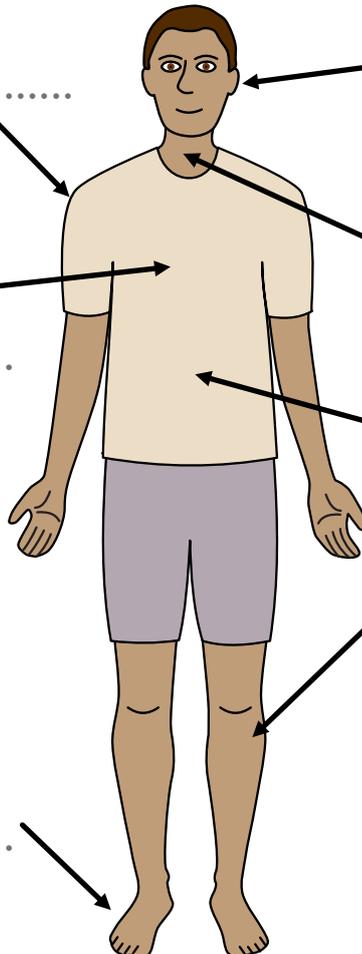

Is this a head?
.....

Is this a leg?
.....

Is this a nose?
.....

Is this a stomach?
.....

Is this an ear?
.....

Is this an eye?

.....

Is this a hand?

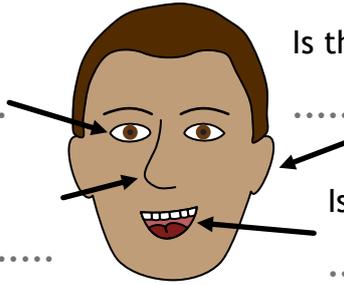

.....

Is this a neck?

.....

Is this a mouth?

.....

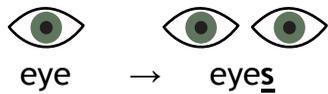

4. Singular and plural.

Singular means one.

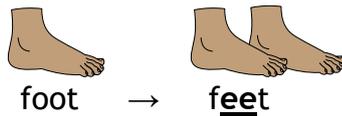

Plural means more than one.

To show that there is more than one of something, we add s to the word.

For example,

There is only one exception.

1. He has two eyes

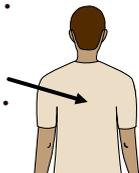

2. He has one

3. He has one

4. He has two

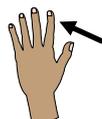

5. He has one

6. He has two

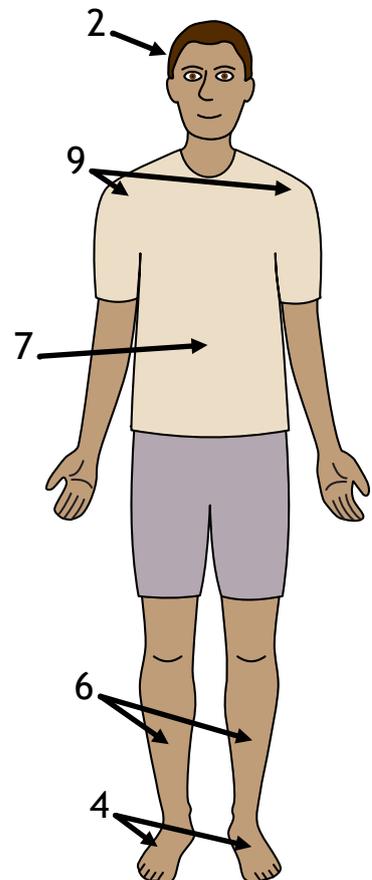

7. He has one

8. He has ten

9. He has two

10. He has one

5. Complete the sentences.

- I walk with my legs
- I write with my
- I talk with my
- I smell with my
- I eat with my
- I hear with my
- I see with my
- I put my shoes on my
- I put my scarf on my
- I put my backpack on my
- I put my hat on my
- My eyes, nose, and mouth are on my
- I have five on each foot and five on each hand.

6. Listen and complete the sentences.

- 1. Are you OK?
No, my back hurts a lot.
- 2. What happened?
I broke my left playing basketball.
- 3. What's wrong?
I have a cut on my
- 4. What happened to your?
I hit it on a door.

5. Is your OK?

Yes, it is just a bruise.

6. Why did you go to the doctor's?

I hurt my right playing football.

7. My hurts.

Did you eat something bad?

8. Why is your red?

I have a cold.

9. My are cold.

Why don't you wear a hat?

10. What's wrong?

I have something in my

11. What happened to your?

A spider bit me.

12. Why can't you play cricket?

I hurt my